

Description of The Wilson Park Senior Dancers

The Wilson Park Senior Dancers is a line-dancing group of senior citizens. Many of them are in their 80's but they are very healthy because they stay active. This video was made in Milwaukee in July of 2009 at the 80th Birthday Party of Aunt Bonnie Bavuso.

This video is a wonderful resource for learning how to Line Dance. You will be inspired to put out the effort it takes to dance and stay healthy when you see this group in action. www.PatrioticAmericanMemoryTraining.com
